Yes

Accepting new Medicare patients:

I treat the full spectrum of patients from infancy to geriatrics, presenting with any and all emergent and non-emergent medical problems, primarily in the urgent care setting but also in the hospital emergency department setting as well as in the prehospital setting as a paramedic. I focus on patient education at every opportunity in an attempt to have patients follow up at the appropriate medical facility for their personal needs, rather than presenting to the emergency department for non-emergent conditions.
